

The Connecticut River Watershed Council proudly presents

“Goodnight Irene”

A concert by songwriters from throughout the watershed

This powerful event will bring our communities together to celebrate our resilience in the wake of Tropical Storm Irene.

Tuesday August 28, 2012

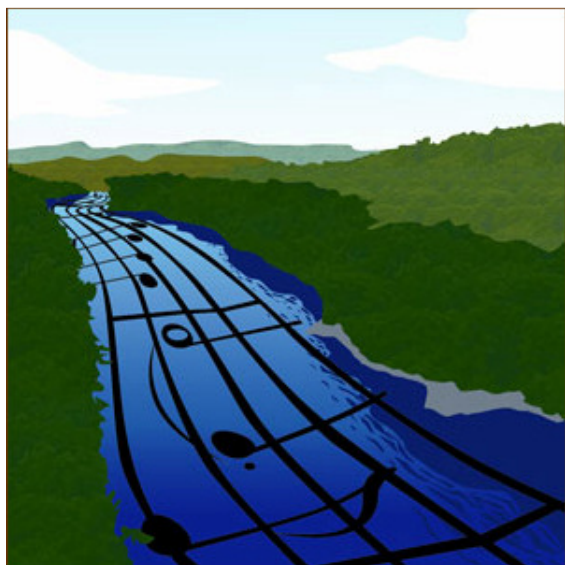

at Deerfield Academy, Deerfield, MA

7:00pm

Tickets $10, on sale at CRWC Office, 15 Bank Row, Greenfield; online at ctriver.org; Raven Used Books in Greenfield & Northampton

Turn It Up! in Brattleboro; Boswell's Books in Shelburne Falls; World Eye Bookshop in Greenfield

http://www.ctriver.org/programs/outreach_education/songwriting/index.html

The Recorder, Greenfield, MA graphic by Tom Dudley (used with permission)

“Goodnight Irene”

is a benefit concert for the annual Source to Sea Cleanup.

For details go to www.ctriver.org

The Source to Sea Cleanup is an annual one-day coordinated cleanup of the rivers, streams and banks that make up the vast Connecticut River system. This year, on Saturday, September 29, 2012, thousands of volunteers of all ages and abilities head out to places of their choice all along the four-state watershed to clean the Connecticut River and its tributaries on foot or by boat.

This concert is proudly sponsored by:

The River Connects Us!